hello from new jersey, usa. i was a rock-n-roll fan all my life 42 yrs in the earley 1980's as i was traveling around the united states i on a beach in south padre island, texas when i listened to bob marley's music for the first time. i had heard of bob before but never listened to his music. i searching for a new sound the 80's rock bands where not an inspiration. bob touched me that summer afternoon. ever since then, bob and reggae have been in my heart and on my playlist. january, 2006 i visited jamacia and the bob marley museum. an unforgettable experience. june,2006 i returned to jamacia and visited nine mile. as we were standing in the liquid sunshine, waiting to enter bob's mausoleum, captain crazy our tour guide had us singing no woman no cry. we reached this part of the song:

As they would mingle with the good people we meet.Good friends we have, oh, good friends we've lost Along the way.In this great future, you can't forget your past:

satisfy my soul,
henry
